Programs

IEP (Intensive English Program)

There are six levels of intensive English classes at RC. Each level includes conversation, pronunciation, grammar, reading, and writing. The purpose is to give students a grasp of academic writing, critical reading, and fluent speaking to be able to enter the TOEFL® preparation course and achieve their educational and professional goals. The six levels start with the alphabet and end with high level college preparation. Students are taught in pairs or small groups, which enables teachers to monitor their progress individually. By working together in small groups, students increase their appetite for learning and absorb the teacher's professional instruction in a short period of time.

Classes are held Monday thru Friday. Students can choose to attend morning or afternoon classes (Semi-intensive course) which consist of 18 hours per week, or both morning and afternoon classes (Intensive course) which consist of 36 hours per week.

Pre-beginning (ABC)

Students develop survival communication in English, obtain fundamental knowledge, gain comprehensible pronunciation skills, and increase their motivation and interests in learning English.

Beginning

Students are introduced to basic grammar, vocabulary development, dictionary use and pronunciation of the phonetic alphabet.

Intermediate

High-intermediate

Students focus on writing basic to complex sentences, interpersonal communication skills, intermediate grammar, pronunciation and writing skills.

Advanced

Students focus on more intensive practice in reading, writing and speaking; fluency in mechanics; and reading longer, more complex articles. Students learn high-intermediate grammar and practice in discussion groups.

I came to Rosemead College (RC) to improve my English skills, but I also found a very friendly environment where I feel like I'm always learning something. My pronunciation was a real problem. I've been studying here for two months now, and I already feel more secure than I'm speaking English. The classes are very active and our teacher works very hard to help us to get better every day. I'm very grateful with the school for giving me the opportunity to learn English in the U.S.

Summer Camp

During the summer season, RC offers special opportunities for students who come to the US for a short summer course of English language learning. Students are immersed in English classes as well as in various activities and field trips. Housing arrangements with American families are arranged, where students have an opportunity to get a taste of what it is like to live in the USA. This provides a meaningful and challenging vacation experience.

Jesus R. (Spain)

I would describe Rosemead College (RC) to my friends as a very nice college where you can find people from many countries. All of my classmates from various countries are very nice. They always give me cookies during breaks and they tell me things about their countries. I find that very interesting. The teaching methodology is different from what I am used to, but it is easy to follow. What I like about my teacher is that she always makes us laugh because of the way she tells us stories. I can say that since being in Rosemead College, I can speak faster and explain myself better than I used to do in my hometown.
